Mason Shamis, MD

InnovAge Colorado PACE
(Program of All-inclusive Care for the Elderly)

“My goal is to facilitate the best health and care possible. I believe that health is defined uniquely by each person based on their beliefs and values.”

— Mason Shamis

Dr. Shamis is board certified in Family Medicine and takes a team-based approach to elderly patients with complex medical and social-emotional needs. Before joining InnovAge, Dr. Shamis was in private practice, and in 2011, he earned NCQA Level 3 recognition for providing patient-centered medical care. He enjoys focusing on wellness, disease prevention and whole-person care using quality and evidence-based measures.

Dr. Shamis received his Doctor of Medicine (MD) from Florida State University and completed his residency at the Fort Collins Family Medicine Residency Program. He believes strongly in community outreach and organized medicine, and is an active member of several medical societies and associations.

He enjoys spending time with family and friends, and enjoys running, cycling, hiking and exploring Colorado’s best trails, restaurants and craft beers.
