Krysha Mallari, CRNP, MSN

InnovAge Pennsylvania LIFE

"I love witnessing our participants experience a better quality of life from the socialization, recreational activities, and quality healthcare they receive at the LIFE center."

— Krysha Mallari, CRNP

Krysha earned her Bachelor of Science in nursing from Temple University and her Master of Science in nursing, specializing in adult gerontology primary care, from Thomas Jefferson University. She is dual-board certified as an Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners.

Prior to joining InnovAge, Krysha worked as a registered nurse in the cardiac telemetry unit at Albert Einstein Medical Center and volunteered at St. Agnes Skilled Nursing Facility while pursuing her undergraduate degree.

Krysha is fluent in Tagalog and is a member of the Philadelphia chapter of the Philippine Nurses Association and enjoys volunteering her time at health screening events. She loves dogs, singing Broadway show tunes, and playing the guitar.
